Circus Panics Kids From Kettler Knolls

By TEO CUNNINGHAM
Lomita 232-J

The little girl that wanted to be the nurse and the little boy that wanted to be the policeman or fireman when they grew up have changed their minds . . . why? Well, it's all because the circus paid Torrance a visit yesterday . . . the future nurse now sees herself all decked out in circus finery riding bareback on one of those fine white prancing horses, or floating gracefully through the air to be caught by the strong, handsome "man on the flying trapeze"; while Junior would like nothing better than to get into those clown outfits and make other children laugh or to brave the big ferocious lion in the big center cage . . . and for a while at least, there will be circus play, especially over there at the Playhouse Nursery on Cabrillo St. for the older there, that is the 4 to 6 year olds, went to dinner at Ding How's and then to the big top where they oh'd and ah'd at each new act and laughed with and at the clowns. Accompanied by their parents on the much to be remembered evening were Johnny and Donnie Nash, Cheryl Light, Rene Marino, Gene Cusson, Judy Lovelady, Dennis Brown, Steven Banasky, and Billy and Kathy Petersen.

Last Friday evening, in the auditorium of Torrance Elementary School, the dens making up Pack No. 732 of the Cub Scouts held their monthly award meeting . . . from Den No. 4, with Iris Phillips as its Den mother, Bobby Bauman received his Bobcat pin; Jimmy Roeder was awarded his Bear book and a gold arrow; while Jimmy Dawson and Mathew Phillips were the recipients of the Wolf badge, a gold arrow, and a silver arrow.

How about some of the other dens here in the Knolls letting us know how their boys are getting along and what they are doing. We're always interested in our Scouts . . . both boys and girls, so PLEASE let us know.

Speaking of Scouts, the girls of Intermediate Troop No. 936 enjoy a roller skating party last Friday evening at the Redondo Roller Rink. Those who flew around on wheels were Kiyoko Takeuchi, Marie Turner, Louise Otterstein, Judy and Janice Frederickson, Joyce Wray, Sharon Brase, Nancy Wolters, Emile Greer, Judy Weister, Mimi Cowan, Mary Draskowski, Barbara Hanna, Donna Dunklin, and Karen Korth. The girls were chaperoned by mothers Betty Otterstein, Phyllis Wolters, Mary Clark, Helen Korth, Jean Hannan and Brase. From all reports the party which was under the sponsorship of the Scout Mothers Club was a huge success and the girls are all wanting to go again real soon.

At a stick shower last Friday in the home of Goody Fischer on Reynosa Dr., Mrs. Jean Braddock was the "Queen for the evening." A miniature crib, decorated with pink and yellow crepe paper, complete to the sides that dropped, was the unusual centerpiece. The rest of the house was charmingly decorated with spring flowers and pastel colors of pink and yellow. Guests depositing their gifts in the crib were Mesdames Mildred Kyles, Virginia Jones, Camilla Helphand, Margaret Beavers, Jean Loy, Annette Brown, Gloria Hixson, Wilma Brown, Judy Volmerding, Joyce LaMue, B. LaMue, Sr. Marie Pooley, Miriam Wassenberg and Dorothy Wainwright. Those unable to attend but sending their tokens of friendship to the "beir to be" were Mrs. Alberta Winneck, Millie West, Mary Richie, Polly Fuller, Irma Harrington. Appropriate games were played with Mildred Kyles winning the prize. After many lovely gifts were opened, refreshments of "orange delight" and assorted fancy cookies were served. Sharing hostess duties with Goody were Marie Foote, and Carmen Nelson.

Tonight is the night!!! It's the night that our children have worked so hard to prepare for us . . . it's the night that gives us a chance to see what our child is doing and why our school system is considered one of the best in the United States. It's Torrance Elementary's Open House tonight. A short business meeting will be held in the auditorium first, then the rooms will be open for you inspection with exhibits of hobbies and school work. The various Scout Troops which are sponsored by the PTA will also have exhibits. A nursery will be provided for the children, so why not make it a point to go?

Getting acquainted with their new neighbors and parishioners are Rev. and Mrs. James P. Lowen, the new pastor of the Foursquare Church in Torrance. The church rents the house at 1820 Calamar for its "shepherd" and so we would like to extend a hand of welcome to them. They have one daughter, Eleanor Anne, who is 17, but is staying in Sacramento to finish out the school year there. The Lowens have made their home there for the past three and a half years. Rev. Lowen likes fishing and hunting when he can get away, but more often than not he can't get away so he "dabbles in photography in his spare time." Members of the church had a nice way of welcoming them . . . they gave them a surprise grocery shower and reception Sunday evening after their arrival.

Over in the third tract at 23327 Palena, we have new neighbors Dale and Alma Ladd, and daughters Patty who is six, Susie who is seven, and Linda who is three. The Ladds hail from Peoria, Ill., and have been staying with Dick and Alberta Gresham on Huber St. . . . the Greshams and Ladds being old friends from way back. Dale is a crane operator for Douglas here in Torrance and Alma's cheery smile is served with your coffee at Bill's doughnut shop.

It isn't a bit too early to start saving those papers . . . Torrance Elementary is having a paper drive the 27th of May, and we know you all want to do your part to make it a big success, so start saving now!

Last Saturday morning, the Catholic Daughters had an eighth birthday and by way of celebration had a Communion breakfast which was held at Iron's Cottage in Redondo Beach. Here Kettler's Bernice Hartley, Ellen Hardesty, Yelma Lucas, Teresa Sifers, Teo Cunningham and Helen Rick enjoyed not only the good food and jolly view but also a good speaker in the person of Rev. Fr. Edward Sullivan, who is the chaplain at the State Prison at Terminal Island.
